

2009 NVAR REALTOR® OF THE YEAR AWARD
Official Nomination Form

Every year the Northern Virginia Association of REALTORS® seeks nominations for the Realtor® of the Year. All NVAR members are encouraged to nominate themselves or fellow NVAR members who fit the criteria. The 2009 REALTOR® of the Year will be announced at the closing session of the NVAR Annual Convention on October 13. Nominations must be received by September 15, 2009. Complete the attached form for each candidate and submit your nomination(s) as described below.

An Independent Panel Will Review Award Nominees for the Following:

- Membership in the Northern Virginia Association of REALTORS®
- Contribution to the real estate industry within the award year and recent past
- Personal integrity, skills, talents, and professionalism as a REALTOR®
- Leadership, creativity, and support

Nominations must be received by September 15, 2009.

Please submit all nominations to:

Please include this sheet as a cover sheet for the nominee's resume, biography and other supporting documents. An introductory letter is optional, but helpful. Candidates will be judged by independent panel members who have in-depth real estate knowledge. The panel will consider the following:

I. Contributions to the Industry within the Award Year: List any accomplishments within NVAR, VAR or NAR, as well as in the community or the candidate's firm. Include examples of significant achievements and contributions to the industry within the award year.

II. Outstanding Qualities: What sets the candidate apart from other REALTORS® and contributes to the individual's well-roundedness? Include comments and examples of the candidate's enthusiasm, honesty, integrity, talent and skill.

III. Additional Factors: Show examples of volunteer work, and achievements through volunteer work. Community, local, state and national work should be included. Service may be through participation in civic and service clubs, arts organizations, charitable activities, political action and educational work.
